

Management

The mission of the Management Committee is to insure that congregational finances and property are managed honestly, wisely and in accordance to direction of the session and to administer all other matters committed to them by the congregation.