

With a hand to the plough

The end of it all: Praise

The end of discipleship is praise. The ground we're asked to work may be rocky, hard, and soggy; the sun may be hot, and blackflies may pester us. Yet, God is our help. Our praise in all circumstances is our witness to the goodness of our Lord. So, as you labour, sing to the Lord a new song! Let everything that breathes praise the Lord!
