

In Haiti There Is Anguish

1. In Hai - ti there is an - guish that seems too much to bear;
2. A wom - an sifts through rub - ble, a man has lost his home,
3. O God, you love your chil - dren, you hear each lift - ed prayer!
4. Where are you in the an - guish? Lord, may we hear a - new a land so used to sor - row now knows e - ven more de - spair.

a hun - gry, or - phaned tod - dler sobs, for she is now a - lone.
May all who suf - fer in that land know you are pres - ent there.
that an - y - where your world cries out, you're there, and suf - fering, too.

From cit - y streets the cries of grief rise up to hills a - bove;
Where are you, Lord, when thou - sands die, the rich, the poor - est poor?
In mo - ments of com - pas - sion shown, in sim - ple acts of grace,
And may we see, in oth - ers' pain, the cross we're called to bear.

in all the sor - row, pain and death, where are you, God of love?
Were you the ver - y first to cry for all that is no more?
may those in pain find heal - ing balm, and know your love's em - brace.
Send out your church in Je - sus' name to pray, to serve, to share.
