Advice to a Young Minister

HERE ARE A FEW LESSONS TO BE LEARNED FROM KARL BARTH:

COMPILED BY REV. DR. WILLIAM KLEMPA

1. "The pulpit," Barth said, "is the real arena of the Kingdom of God". In the busyness of your parish ministry and the many demands that are made upon you, never forget that. Order your priorities accordingly.
2. Like Barth, sit before your Bible studying it each day. "Plow it like a farmer, furrow after furrow," as Barth's friend, Eduard Thurneysen said. Barth did.
3. Love your people as Karl Barth loved his congregation. Live in solidarity with them in their struggles.
4. Keep the Bible in one hand and the newspaper in the other, as Barth famously said. And the internet.
5. Always have a solid theological book like Calvin's Institutes on the go.
6. Find a colleague or mentor with whom you can discuss theological, ecclesiastical, social and political issues as Barth did with Eduard Thurneysen.

Rev. Dr. William Klempa is principal emeritus of The Presbyterian College, Montreal.
