

TERMS OF REFERENCES
STANDING COMMITTEES/ORGANIZATIONS
REPORTING TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Terms of Reference for each of the standing committees are approved by the General Assembly. In the late 1990s all terms of reference were reviewed and since that time, there have been revisions. The date of approval by the General Assembly is under the title of each committee. Below are either the specific terms of references or summaries of constitutions depending on the nature of the committee. For example: the Assembly Council has terms of reference whereas the Presbyterian Church Building Corporation has a summary of their responsibilities.

ASSEMBLY COUNCIL

PURPOSE AND ACCOUNTABILITY

The General Assembly itself establishes policy and the Assembly Council is responsible for the implementation of that policy.

In its role as both a co-ordinating body and a prophetic one, Council will report to and be responsible to the General Assembly, and shall be charged with the responsibility of ensuring that the work of the church is carried out efficiently and effectively within the policies established by the General Assembly.

The Assembly Council will be of central importance in the life of the church. It assumed all the legal powers vested in the Administrative Council on July 1, 1992.

RESPONSIBILITIES

In all matters, the Council will carry out its business and communications in a manner that demonstrates faithfulness, openness and transparency to the membership of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, and a commitment to the gospel of Jesus Christ and the furtherance of his reconciling mission in the world.

In its co-ordinating role, the Assembly Council will:

- co-ordinate the work of the national Agencies of the church, having direct links with national staff.
- recommend policy, submit short- and long-range plans, co-ordinate and recommend a realistic and balanced budget and generally present the current and future needs of the national Agencies to the General Assembly.
- have final responsibility in matters financial under the authority of the General Assembly.
- ensure that the decisions of the General Assembly are carried out and communicated to the church.
- assist the General Assembly in making responsible decisions by ensuring that both the Council, and the Assembly, have before them all the information that is needed and that is pertinent to the matter in hand in order to make a wise decision.
- with its diverse representation from across the church, provide the broadest possible viewpoint on proposed changes in policy direction. Thus, agencies are required to inform the Council of any proposed new directions, including additional executive staff positions. The Council will advise the Assembly. In some cases, the advice of the Council will be contrary to the wishes of the Agency Committee. In such circumstances, the General Assembly, with all the information before it, will make the final decision.

In its prophetic role, the Assembly Council will:

- present a vision for the mission of a church that looks to God for continual renewal.
- dream about the future of the church and seek to be a leading edge of what the church might be in the future.
- affirm the work of the agencies of the church as they carry out a prophetic role for our denomination.
- call itself and the church to account when in need of critique.
- invite input, when helpful, from committees of the church that do not normally report through the Council, mindful of its servant role.

MEMBERSHIP

The Council consists of 40 individuals:

- eight persons appointed by Assembly from the church at large, with the convener being named from among the appointees;
- fifteen persons appointed by Assembly for a term of three years, one from each of 15 different presbyteries, selected from among those nominated by presbytery, rotating by alphabetical order of presbyteries and alternating between clergy and non-clergy each time a presbytery's term comes in the rotation; five presbytery positions will rotate every year;

All members of the Assembly Council must be professing members of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

ATLANTIC MISSION SOCIETY

MEMBERSHIP

The membership consists of: active members; associate members; life members and affiliated members.

STRUCTURE

The structure of the Atlantic Mission Society corresponds to that of the courts of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. The Society parallels the Synod of the Atlantic Provinces with each presbyterial taking in an area similar to the presbytery and the auxiliary being drawn from the local congregation. The president of the Society reports directly to the General Assembly each year.

Each auxiliary meets regularly and is bound by the Constitution and By-Laws of the Atlantic Mission Society which was revised in September 2000. A copy of the Constitution and By-Laws may be obtained from the AMS corresponding secretary.

The president of each auxiliary is a member of the presbyterial executive, along with officers elected by the presbyterial. Each presbyterial has an annual meeting. All members of all auxiliaries within the presbyterial are encouraged to attend. Voting members include one delegate from each auxiliary (in addition to their presidents) and one leader or delegate from each affiliated group, along with the members of the presbyterial executive.

There are eight presbyterials in the Atlantic Synod namely: Cape Breton; Halifax-Lunenburg; Miramichi; Newfoundland; Pictou; Prince Edward Island; St. John and Truro-Wallace. The president of each presbyterial and the executive officers of the Society form the executive committee of the Society. The executive committee meets at least three times per year, including sessions at the time of the Annual meeting.

The Society meets annually and each auxiliary, affiliated adult, youth and children's group within the Synod of the Atlantic Provinces is entitled to send one delegate. Others are free to attend at their own expense.

The Society has representation on the Assembly Council; the Life and Mission Agency; Synod Council and some other committees of the denomination.

THE PRESBYTERIAN MESSAGE

The Society produces ten issues a year of The Presbyterian Message. This excellent little magazine is concise, interesting and informative. It contains materials for the current studies, mission news, worship resources and other information to enable Presbyterians to be more effective partners in mission.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH GROUPS

The Society promotes and encourages children's and youth groups. The Society provides study material and leadership training for affiliated mid-week groups such as COC (Children of the Church), Explorers and CGIT (Canadian Girls in Training).

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Through free will offerings the Society is able to fulfil its purpose and fund special projects from time to time. The emphasis placed on study and sharing of information results in a committed and informed membership who support the Society as they are able.

At the briefing sessions, the Clerks meet with commissioners and answer questions about their report. They also help orient the young adult representatives by talking with them about what they might expect to experience at the General Assembly. During each business session, they record minutes and advise the Moderator on procedure. After each session adjourns, they prepare draft minutes that are printed and distributed to commissioners. Once the Assembly closes, the Clerks complete the official minutes, construct an index of minutes and reports, participate in the production of the Acts and Proceedings, and review evaluation forms submitted by commissioners.

Throughout the year, the Clerks of Assembly respond to queries from officers and members of lower courts, and from individual members of the church. In addition, they monitor the receipt of answers from presbyteries to remits sent down under the Barrier Act and to referrals from the General Assembly. They also act as consultants to General Assembly commissions and committees. The Clerks meet together twice each year. In autumn they discuss and designate the work referred to them by the Assembly. In spring they finalize their responses to overtures, report on findings from "study and report" matters and prepare their report to the General Assembly. Matters of polity are discussed at both meetings.

MINISTRY AND CHURCH VOCATIONS COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND RECEPTION

(Revised A&P 2011, p. 392-94, 42)

The Committee on Education and Reception recommends programs of study for mature students entering the ministries of this church, for diaconal ministers of this church seeking ordination to the ministry of Word and Sacraments, and for students who attend theological colleges other than those of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. It is also the committee's responsibility to review the applications of ministers from other denominations who wish to work within this branch of the church.

CURRENT GUIDELINES

Graduates of "Other" Theological Colleges

1. All certified candidates for ministry of The Presbyterian Church in Canada must complete the entire candidacy process of preparation and discernment before ordination to the ministry of Word and Sacraments or designation to the Order of Diaconal Ministries. This process assigns significant roles in listening to the direction of God's calling of the candidate to the following: the session of the home congregation, the certifying presbytery, the college of The Presbyterian Church in Canada where the candidate studies, and eventually, the calling congregation and its presbytery.
2. The purpose of the guidelines for graduates of "other" theological colleges is two-fold:
 - a) to provide the church and the candidate with sufficient time and development of relationships to discern the candidate's readiness to serve in the ministry of The Presbyterian Church in Canada;
 - b) to ensure that candidates are equipped with the knowledge, understanding and experience necessary to serve in the ministry of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

3. Membership Requirements

Candidates for the ministry of The Presbyterian Church in Canada are members of a congregation of The Presbyterian Church in Canada for at least one year before certification by a presbytery. Although this initial time span is short, the candidate's three years (or more) of study in a Presbyterian Church in Canada college normally extend this period considerably.

In the case of certified candidates for ministry who apply for a course of study as graduates of "other" theological colleges, they must have completed a minimum of two years of membership in a congregation of The Presbyterian Church in Canada in the period immediately preceding their application. Such candidates, with the guidance of their presbytery and in consultation with their session, are directed to seek active participation and leadership, as appropriate to their interests and abilities and the needs of the church.

Presbyteries are required to ensure that the candidate's application, which comes before the Committee on Education and Reception only with the endorsement of the presbytery, details fully the nature and extent of the candidate's experience in The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

4. Educational Requirements

Candidates for the ministry of The Presbyterian Church in Canada are normally required to earn a B.A. degree, or equivalent, from an accredited university, plus an M.Div. degree, and diploma, or equivalent, from a theological college of The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

- 4.1 Candidates for ministry who are graduates of "other" theological colleges are assigned additional theological studies in a college of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. The goals of these courses of study include the following:
 - a) to build upon the candidate's previous theological education,
 - b) to provide competent instruction on the Reformed view of scripture that enables students to develop sound principles of biblical interpretation,
 - c) to ensure strong emphasis on the preaching of the Word in Reformed practice,
 - d) to provide clear instruction on Reformed theology, sacramental theology and worship,
 - e) to provide instruction on Presbyterian Church in Canada history and polity, recognizing that understanding this denomination's history and the Canadian context is essential for ministerial service in The Presbyterian Church in Canada,
 - f) to ensure knowledge and understanding of the theology and practice of The Presbyterian Church in Canada,
 - g) to facilitate strengthening and sharpening of skills for ministry in the context of congregational practice in The Presbyterian Church in Canada,
 - h) to facilitate the development of significant friendships and relationships among those who will be colleagues in ministry.
- 4.2 Graduates of theological colleges not affiliated with The Presbyterian Church in Canada will be required to be formally examined under the auspices of the Committee on Education and Reception as to their readiness for ministry in The Presbyterian Church in Canada, and to determine the length of additional study required at one of our theological colleges. All applicants must have a B.A., or equivalent, from an accredited university, followed by an M.Div. degree from a Christian theological college accredited by the Association of Theological Schools (or equivalent, outside North America). No applicant will be considered without at least a B average, or its equivalent, in the M.Div. studies.

- a) Graduates of theological colleges not affiliated with member churches of the World Communion of Reformed Churches will normally be required to complete two semesters of theological study (10 semester courses) under the care of the governing board of one of the colleges of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. This study will include supervised theological field education in a congregation of The Presbyterian Church in Canada throughout the assigned academic year.
- b) Graduates of theological colleges affiliated with member churches of the World Communion of Reformed Churches whose academic requirements are the equivalent of those of The Presbyterian Church in Canada, namely a B.A. degree, or equivalent, from an accredited university, plus an M.Div. degree, and diploma, or equivalent, will normally be required to complete 1 semester of theological study (5 semester courses) under the care of the governing board of one of the colleges of The Presbyterian Church in Canada and a supervised theological field education placement in a congregation of The Presbyterian Church in Canada. The semester's study will be focused in such areas as: Presbyterian Church in Canada history, Presbyterian Church in Canada polity (including policies), preaching and worship, sacraments and the doctrine of the church, and Reformed confessions.
- c) Colleges are expected to work with each candidate to map out a program of study that, to the fullest extent possible, avoids duplication of the candidate's previous studies. Colleges may use such means as comparison of detailed course outlines to determine areas of overlap.
- d) Significant length of time and breadth of leadership experience within The Presbyterian Church in Canada may be reflected in the educational requirements assigned to a particular candidate. Normally both factors – length and breadth – are required for an adjustment in the usual educational requirements. Length of time normally denotes continuous leadership experience in The Presbyterian Church in Canada. Breadth of leadership experience normally denotes service outside the local congregation, such as presbytery representative elder; giving leadership in presbytery, synod or national programs; or serving on presbytery, synod or national committees.

PURPOSE AND ACCOUNTABILITY

The Committee to Nominate Standing Committees serves the General Assembly by presenting a slate of names for membership on each of its standing committees. It will co-ordinate the call for and reception of nominations, and assist the church in finding members who can serve at the national level on committees and boards where their gifts and skills are most needed and can best be used.

The Committee to Nominate Standing Committees reports to the General Assembly and is accountable to the Assembly for its work.

The Committee to Nominate Standing Committees is appointed by the General Assembly on nomination by the various synods as per Book of Forms section 288.1 and described below.

RESPONSIBILITIES

In all matters, the Committee to Nominate Standing Committees will carry out its duties with discretion, fairness and balance, seeking to build up the church, to reflect the ethnic diversity of the denomination and challenge members to service.

The Committee will:

- Keep records of the names and addresses of all members of standing committees, together with their date of appointment and duration of term.
- Communicate to the church the various opportunities for service on standing committees, and the skills, gifts and time commitment required for each position.

- Annually correspond with each standing committee and board in order to call for nominations and seek to ascertain the skills particularly needed over the next term of office.
- Annually correspond with presbyteries to call for nominations to the various standing committees.
- Maintain data on the racial and ethnic diversity of the standing committees of the church and make that data available to the church as appropriate.
- Meet at least twice per year, no more than once in person, to carry out its work.

The Assembly Office will provide administrative support to the committee.

MEMBERSHIP

The Committee to Nominate Standing Committees consists of nine members of The Presbyterian Church in Canada appointed for a three-year non-renewable term, nominated by the eight synods from within their bounds, with one synod, every three years in rotation, nominating two members to make up the full complement of nine. Each synod will alternate between clergy and non-clergy each time its term comes in the rotation (see Book of Forms section 288.1).

One third of the members shall retire each year. The initial rotation will be established by the Clerks of Assembly.

The convener is to be named from among the membership.

GUIDELINES FOR MEMBERSHIP OF STANDING COMMITTEES AND NOMINATION PROCESS

The General Assembly in 2012 approved changes to the structure and workings of the Committee to Nominate Standing Committees with the adoption of Book of Forms section 288.1 and the Terms of Reference (A&P 2010, p. 361-62, 41).

The Committee to Nominate proposes nominations for membership on each of the General Assembly's standing committees. It co-ordinates the call for and reception of nominations and assists the church in finding members who can serve at the national level on committees where their gifts and skills are most needed and can best be used.

Membership and Terms on Standing Committees

Any professing member of The Presbyterian Church in Canada (member, ruling elder, diaconal minister, minister of Word and Sacrament) may be nominated by or apply with the endorsement of a session, presbytery, synod or standing committee.

Members on the standing committees of the General Assembly serve for a three-year term with the option of serving a second three-year term. A six-year limit on membership applies to all individuals unless the General Assembly makes an exception. A member's term will be indicated by the year commencing and completing the appointment (for example, 2012-2015). A person can serve only on one committee at a time. Members by correspondence are treated in the same manner. Ex-officio members are not included in the six-year rule and are designated as voting or non-voting on the membership list.

Membership will be based on a rotation with 1/3 of membership retiring annually.

When a vacancy on a committee occurs during the year for any reason, that committee may appoint someone to complete the term, but that person must be confirmed by the next General Assembly through the report of the Committee to Nominate.

The committee is to ensure that there is a balance between ministers and laity; regional representation, gender, and will strive to include the cultural diversity of our church.

Nomination Process

In the fall, the committee will communicate with the church to encourage members of the church to consider serving on a standing committee of the General Assembly.

1. Specific correspondence calling for nominations will be sent to sessions, presbyteries, synods and committees. This information will also be on the church's website inviting nominations. This correspondence includes: submission date for nominations; terms of reference for the various standing

- committees, size, and requirements of members; nomination forms; and any information particular to that year's nomination process and/or needs.
2. Nominations are to be accompanied with full address and contact information, biographical information and reasons explaining why the person is recommended (a nomination form will be provided).
 3. The committee is encouraged to contact individuals to consider serving on a standing committee. These nominations will be considered along with those submitted by sessions, presbyteries, synods and committees.
 4. All nominations must be submitted by the date indicated in the correspondence.
 5. The committee, at its March meeting, prepares the slate of names for nomination. Following this meeting it will inform those individuals being nominated.
 6. The slate of nominations will be a recommendation in the committee's report to the General Assembly circulated to commissioners in the Book of Reports (initial mailing). The committee may submit a supplementary report for the registration package distributed at the General Assembly.
 7. Recommendations/Amendments to the slate of nominations at General Assembly:
 - 7.1 The report with its recommendations is presented at an early sederunt.
 - 7.2 Once the report has been received, only new nominations and nominations for the second three-year term are subject to amendment.
 - 7.3 Amendments must be given in writing, over the signature of two commissioners, to the convener of the committee by the time noted. The amendment must be in the form of a name replacing the proposed nomination or a name filling a vacancy in the report along with reasons for the amendment. (Amendment forms will be available.)
 - 7.4 The committee will meet during the Assembly, if necessary, by telephone conference at an appointed time to deal with amendments and prepare a supplementary report.
 - 7.5 Upon presenting a supplementary report, only those suggested changes to the slate of nominations previously made in writing by commissioners may be introduced by amendment.
 8. Following the General Assembly, the General Assembly Office will inform those individuals appointed to standing committees, along with initial information about the specific committee to which they have been appointed. A thank you letter will be sent to those persons whose term has concluded.

We are a national organization covering the country from Quebec to British Columbia. We are divided into seven regions from which we draw representation in membership, stewardship and service.

The organization is structured to run parallel to The Presbyterian Church in Canada. That is, we have local groups within congregations, presbyterials within the bounds of presbyteries, and synodicals within the bounds of synods. Our Council would be parallel to the General Assembly of the Church.

The Society functions autonomously within The Presbyterian Church in Canada, but it reports to the General Assembly and is under its jurisdiction.

Currently, there are over 7000 members from Quebec to British Columbia.
