Trinity Sunday (Pentecost Performance)

May 27, 2018

Welcome to St. Andrew's Church! If you are weary and in search of rest, if you are mourning and you long for comfort, if you are struggling and you desire victory, if you recognize that you are a sinner and need a Savior, God welcomes you here in the name of Christ. To the stranger in need of fellowship, to those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, and to whoever will come, this congregation opens wide its doors and welcomes all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Postlude

We, who live by sound and symbol

Tune: Love Divine all loves excelling

We, who live by sound and symbol, we, who learn from sight and word, find these married in the person of the one we call our Lord.

Taking bread to be his body, taking wine to be his blood, he let thought take flesh in action, he let faith take root in food.

Not just once with special people, not just hidden deep in time, but, wherever Christ is followed, earthly fare becomes sublime.
Though to sound it seems a mystery, though to sense it seems absurd, yet in faith, which seems like folly, we meet Jesus Christ our Lord.

God, our maker, send your Spirit to pervade the bread we break, let it bring the life we long for and the love which we forsake.
Bind us closer to each other, both forgiving and forgiven, give us grace in this and all things, to discern the hand of heaven.
