

What is Mission Today?

Please join the London Presbyterial
Women's Missionary Society

On Saturday, October 26th at New St. James Presbyterian Church

Guest Speaker: Rev. Dr. Silas Ncozana from Malawi

Malawi Pastor, Chuluchosema CCAP

Silas Ncozana has worn many hats in his beloved Malawi. Too numerous to list, Reverend Doctor Ncozana's jobs have included General Secretary of the Blantyre Synod of the Central Christian African Presbyterian Church (CCAP), Visiting Fellow at Princeton Seminary, Malawi's ambassador to Tanzania, Germany, Denmark, The Vatican, Austria and Poland. He holds several degrees, most recently a Ph D in Church History from Aberdeen University, Scotland in 1985. He was Lecturer and President of Zomba Theological College from 2005 until 2012 and has been Village Pastor at Chuluchosema CCAP since 2013. Reverend Ncozana has served as Chairman of the Mulanje Mission Hospital and a member of the Panel on Higher Education., among many other organizations. He and Margaret, his wife of 50 years, have four children and eighteen grandchildren.

Registration: 9:30 a.m. Fee: $15.00 which includes lunch

Please RSVP by October 16th for your group to:

Marg McGugan 226-235-3153

me5mcgugan@gmail.com

Parking available at Valumart (8 spaces closest to NSJ)

and Harris Funeral Home, 220 St. James Street, London (you will have access to shuttle to the Church)