

Core beliefs for regularly engaging with the Proverbs in Christian discipleship.

- Part of the Holy Spirit's ministry is to help Jesus' disciples learn, remember, and obey the wisdom He imparts. Therefore, living in the power of the Holy Spirit involves seeking and obeying Godly wisdom.'
- The book of Proverbs is written as a conversation between a father and his son. Therefore, we approach the Proverbs as children of the Heavenly Father who desires to pass on to us His wisdom for holy and faithful daily living. We trust that the Holy Spirit will guide our eyes to the proverb the Lord needs us to hear today.
- Fear of the Lord is awe-fuelled obedience to the principles manifest in God's Word. Because God is the author of life and thus the wisdom that sustains life, awe-fuelled obedience to His wisdom underlies everything that is good, holy, and lasting.
- We don't know it all. Engaging the Proverbs involves humility before the wisdom of God. We acknowledge the Lord by seeking and obeying His wisdom in all our decisions and actions.
- Wisdom is personified to help us engage our imaginations and connect with the God we cannot see. The complementarity of the feminine and the masculine work together to create life and beauty. Lady Wisdom is a way of visualizing the Holy Spirit who pleads with us in the busiest times to heed her advice (whether the busyness is internal or external.)

*Core beliefs for regularly engaging with the
Proverbs in Christian discipleship.*

- Part of the Holy Spirit's ministry is to help Jesus' disciples learn, remember, and obey the wisdom He imparts. Therefore, living in the power of the Holy Spirit involves seeking and obeying Godly wisdom.
- The book of Proverbs is written as a conversation between a father and his son. Therefore, we approach the Proverbs as children of the Heavenly Father who desires to pass on to us His wisdom for holy and faithful daily living. We trust that the Holy Spirit will guide our eyes to the proverb the Lord needs us to hear today.
- Fear of the Lord is awe-fuelled obedience to the principles manifest in God's Word. Because God is the author of life and thus the wisdom that sustains life, awe-fuelled obedience to His wisdom underlies everything that is good, holy, and lasting.
- We don't know it all. Engaging the Proverbs involves humility before the wisdom of God. We acknowledge the Lord by seeking and obeying His wisdom in all our decisions and actions.
- Wisdom is personified to help us engage our imaginations and connect with the God we cannot see. The complementarity of the feminine and the masculine work together to create life and beauty. Lady Wisdom is a way of visualizing the Holy Spirit who pleads with us in the busiest times to heed her advice (whether the busyness is internal or external.)