Grows The Congregation

The Session

The elders of the congregation serve together on the Session. The Session is responsible for the oversight of all of the ministries of the congregation.

The Ministries of North Bramalea Presbyterian Church

Each of these ministry committees are coordinated by a convener, include a secretary, and consist of elders and members within the congregation. These committees receive ideas/feedback related to their ministries and collaborate with activity groups and individuals. The conveners submit a monthly written report to the Session on their committees' work, while seeking to ensure an atmosphere of mutually supportive, efective and compassionate ministry throughout the process.

Worship & Christian Education Committee:

The mission of the Worship and Christian Education Committee is to provide worship and educational experiences that glorify God, explore and nurture faith in Christ, and strengthen the congregation's faith so that people grow in spiritual maturity.

Congregational Life & Outreach Committee:

The mission of the Congregational Life Committee is to enhance and strengthen social relationships,inside and outside the Church, support joyful fellowship through shared experiences and encourage active participation so people grow together in the body of Christ.

Pastoral Care Committee

The mission of the Pastoral Care Committee is to walk and support people with the love of God. Through prayer, presence, and practical support, this committee seeks to offer pastoral care to people in times of joy, need, illness, and grief, fostering a caring and connected community rooted in God's love.

Finance Committee

The mission of the Finance Committee is to serve as faithful stewards of the Church's financial resources. By fostering a culture of faithful stewardship and transparency, the committee seeks to inspire trust, encourage generosity, and support the long-term financial sustainability of the Church's life and mission.

Maintenance Committee

The mission of the Maintenance Committee is to faithfully steward the Church’s sanctuary, grounds and physical resources of the church, recognizing them as gifts from God. Through diligent upkeep and proactive planning, the committee seeks to provide a safe, welcoming, and well-maintained environment that supports the congregation's life and ministries.

Communications Committee

The mission of the Communications Committee is to share God’s work and the life of the Church in ways that connect people, encourage participation, and strengthen the Church’s presence in the wider community.
