June 16, 2024

Worship leader: Rev. Kathy Fraser

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship

L: Loving God, you call us together

P: To worship God as the people of God.

L: You call us by name and just as we are: you know each of our needs; you know our experiences; you know what rests in our minds and our hearts, and in your love you call us:

P: To worship God as the people of God

L: We come together, our heads, our hearts and our hands and feet yearning to be remade and redirected to paths of justice, and in ways of love. Help us, Jesus, to walk in the paths of justice and love that you yourself have walked:

P: To worship God as the people of God.

L: God invites us to worship as beloved and loving people!
Mold us, Holy Spirit:

P: To worship God as the people of God.

<sup>16</sup> These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth to one another, render in your gates judgements that are true and make for peace, <sup>17</sup> do not devise evil in your hearts against one another, and love no false oath; for all these are things that I hate, says the LORD.

Micah 6:8

He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Matthew 22:34-40

<sup>34</sup> When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, <sup>35</sup> and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. <sup>36</sup> 'Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?' <sup>37</sup> He said to him, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.'" <sup>38</sup> This is the greatest and first commandment. <sup>39</sup> And a second is like it: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself." <sup>40</sup> On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.'
