Responsive Call to Worship

Let us see you this day, O God;

Come to us as light.

Let us hear you this day, O God;

Come to us as truth.

Let us sense your presence, O God;

Come to us as love.

Come and let us worship, O God.

We have come to rejoice in God, our Saviour.

Opening Hymn #698 Saviour, teach me day by day

Prayer of Approach and Lord's Prayer

Hear us now as we lift our confessions to you:

God of love; we are grateful for the love you bless us with in our homes and families. Yet you know family life is not always easy. Our love for each other gets strained some days. Forgive us if we have taken our family for granted. Give us grace to repair relationships where strain is showing. We pray this in Jesus' name who taught us to pray together,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Scriptures

Responsive Psalm 91

Living in the Most High's shelter, camping in the Almighty's shade,

I say to the Lord, "You are my refuge, my stronghold! You are my God—the one I trust!"

Because you've made the Lord my refuge, the Most High, your place of residence—no evil will happen to you; no disease will come close to your tent.

Because he will order his messengers to help you, to protect you wherever you go.

They will carry you with their own hands so you don't bruise your foot on a stone.

You'll march on top of lions and vipers; you'll trample young lions and serpents underfoot.

God says, "Because you are devoted to me, I'll rescue you. I'll protect you because you know my name.

Whenever you cry out to me, I'll answer. I'll be with you in troubling times. I'll save you and glorify you.

I'll fill you full with old age. I'll show you my salvation."

Luke 10:25-37 Loving your neighbour

A legal expert stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to gain eternal life?" Jesus replied, "What is written in the Law? How do you interpret it?" He responded, "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and love your neighbor as yourself." Jesus said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this and you will live." But the legal expert wanted to prove that he was right, so he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. He encountered thieves, who stripped him naked, beat him up, and left him near death. Now it just so happened that a priest was also going down the same road. When he saw the injured man, he crossed over to the other side of the road and went on his way. Likewise, a Levite came by that spot, saw the injured man, and crossed over to the other side of the road and went on his way. A Samaritan, who was on a journey, came to where the man was. But when he saw him, he was moved with compassion. The Samaritan went to him and bandaged his wounds, tending them with oil and wine. Then he placed the wounded man on his own donkey, took him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day, he took two full days' worth of wages and gave them to the innkeeper. He said, 'Take care of him, and when I return, I will pay you back for any additional costs.' What do you think? Which one of these three was a neighbor to the man who encountered thieves?" Then the legal expert said, "The one who demonstrated mercy toward him." Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
