Call to Worship

Opening Hymn #475: I am the church (verses 1 – 4)

Prayer of Approach and Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Scriptures

Revelation 11:1-14 (NIV)

I was given a reed like a measuring rod and was told, "Go and measure the temple of God and the altar, with its worshipers. ² But exclude the outer court; do not measure it, because it has been given to the Gentiles. They will trample on the holy city for 42 months. ³ And I will appoint my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth." ⁴ They are "the two olive trees" and the two lampstands, and "they stand before the Lord of the earth." ⁵ If anyone tries to harm them, fire comes from their mouths and devours their enemies. This is how anyone who wants to harm them must die. ⁶ They have power to shut up the heavens so that it will not rain during the time they are prophesying; and they have power to turn the waters into blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they want. ⁷ Now when they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up from the Abyss will attack them, and overpower and kill them. ⁸ Their bodies will lie in the public square of the great city—which is figuratively called Sodom and Egypt—where also their Lord was crucified. ⁹For three and a half days some from every people, tribe, language and nation will gaze on their bodies and refuse them burial. ¹⁰The inhabitants of the earth will gloat over them and will celebrate by sending each other gifts, because these two prophets had tormented those who live on the earth. ¹¹But after the three and a half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and terror struck those who saw them. ¹²Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” And they went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies looked on. ¹³At that very hour there was a severe earthquake and a tenth of the city collapsed. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the survivors were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven. ¹⁴The second woe has passed; the third woe is coming soon.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Benediction

Benediction Song: Walk With The Lord

Walk with the Lord. Go from this place, filled with His everlasting grace.

Walk with the Lord. Go where He leads, blessed by His love and His peace.

Each day you live, in all you do,
let the light of Christ be found in you.

Walk with the Lord. Trust and obey.

Go now and serve Him in faith.

Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen

Mark Steinacher is an Owen Sound native who has served pastorates in Alberta and Ontario since his ordination in 1983. Married in 1979 to Brenda, also from Owen Sound, they raised three children. In 1999 he earned his Doctor of Theology from the University of Toronto, examining how an obscure denomination did and did not organize themselves. Semi-retired from a seminary teaching career involving stints at Wycliffe College (University of Toronto), McMaster Divinity College and Tyndale Seminary, Mark is half-time chaplain at Southbridge Long-Term-Care Home in Owen Sound since January 2023. Most Sundays find him in a pulpit somewhere in Grey-Bruce. His hobbies include music, photography, travel and long-distance walking.
