Responsive Call to Worship

Let us bless the Lord at all times;
God's praise will always be on our lips.
Magnify the Lord in all ways;
We will lift up God's name together in worship and in service.
God, send your light and your truth as we gather to worship.
May they lead us into your holy presence.

Opening Hymn: He's got the whole world in his hands

Prayer of Approach and Lord's Prayer

And let us confess before God and one another our sins:
God of courage and commitment; we confess we have not always followed the path You set before us. Fear holds us back from fully embracing Your gift of new life. Our anxieties prevent us from bearing witness to Your love. Forgive us, O God. Give us courage that we may act as Your saints in our own time, faithfully following Jesus, no matter the cost, as we continue, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Scriptures

Responsive Psalm 34:1-10, 22

I will extol the Lord at all times; his praise will always be on my lips. I will glory in the Lord; let the afflicted hear and rejoice.
Glorify the Lord with me; let us exalt his name together.
I sought the Lord, and he answered me; he delivered me from all my fears.
Those who look to him are radiant; their faces are never covered with shame.
This poor man called, and the Lord heard him; he saved him out of all his troubles.
The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and he delivers them.
Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in him.
Fear the Lord, you his holy people, for those who fear him lack nothing.
The lions may grow weak and hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no good thing.
The Lord will rescue his servants; no one who takes refuge in him will be condemned.

Revelation 7:9-17 The Great Multitude in White Robes
After this I looked, and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. And they cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb." All the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying: "Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!" Then one of the elders asked me, "These in white robes—who are they, and where did they come from?" I answered, "Sir, you know." And he said, "These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore, "they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence. 'Never again will they hunger; never again will they thirst. The sun will not beat down on them,' nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd; 'he will lead them to springs of living water. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

This is the Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.
